TOWN HALL NEWS

Workmen's Compensation and Employees Liability insurance contracts were awarded by Mattapoisett Selectmen to Giles H. Dunn who presented a bid of $1909.33. Compensation General Liability insurance was awarded to Raymond Covill of Humphrey, Covill & Coleman with a bid of $1654.00. Also, Motor Vehicle Liability to Raymond Covill, $2,114.09, bid; and Motor Vehicle Physical Damage Insurance to Giles H. Dunn, $760.00, bid.

Starting December 28th, the Mattapoisett Finance Committee will meet on Tuesday evenings in the voting room of the town hall at 7:30 P.M. to discuss the town budget.

A petition has been received by the Selectmen for the town warrant to complete the surfacing of LeBaron Way.

The police budget was discussed at a meeting Saturday morning. There will be a substantial increase this year due to increased personnel.

CHRISTMAS LIGHTING CONTEST

Samuel Bertram presided at an executive meeting of the Mattapoisett Improvement Association held at the home of Mrs. Doris Kinney, treasurer, who read the secretary's report in the absence of Mrs. Lorraine Tuxworth.

Annual Christmas decoration contest will be conducted this year with "Mattapoisett

Inspection will be made by Warren Kunz, Mr. Bertram, Mrs. Elizabeth Mandell, Mrs. Marjorie L. Morris and Mrs. Winifred Burnham between 7 and 10 P.M. Sunday, December 26th, at which time all persons with outside decorations are requested to have the lights on.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS DESTROYED

Mattapoisett Police have had several complaints from business and home owners who have decorated their property only to have their efforts destroyed by vandals. This practice, if it is not stamped out, will not only ruin the efforts of the people who have been victimized but will eventually spoil the Christmas season for all of Mattapoisett. out wreaths and laurel roping and other decorations, only to find her home stripped clean in the morning. Louie Galavotti spent his day off stringing lights at his barber shop and then found 100 bulbs missing the next morning. He replaced the bulbs and that night 60 more bulbs were stolen. This thievery and destruction is believed to be the work of boys in their teens. All Mattapoisett residents should keep alert to any suspicious noise around lighting displays and should notify police of any unusual activity. Parents are asked to check the activities of young people in their charge.

This destruction of the decorations, if unchecked, will wipe out years of effort on the part of homeowners and business people who work to beautify the town during the Christmas season. It is a shame that the holidays should be spoiled by a band of hoodlums. It must not be allowed.

The Mattapoisett Improvement Association has conducted a Christmas lighting contest for years and it has built a spirit and a beauty in the town that is worth keeping.

GRANGE MEETING

The Mattapoisett Subordinate Grange held its bi-monthly meeting last Thursday night with a fine attendance.

A memorial service was held for Mrs. Marjorie Sylvia by the chaplain, Mrs. Rebecca Downing, assisted by the Worthy Ceres, Mrs. Jennie Toolis.

The program opened with music by the pianist, Walter Caswell, with Barry Denham, Christine and Susan Bence, and Donna Hubbard as a quartet singing Christmas songs.

Earle Wilson rendered one of his famous readings about the night before Christmas. An original skit was put on by Susan and Christine Bence, Barry Denham and Donna Hubbard, with Santa Claus coming in at the end who distributed gifts to all.

Officers of the Grange served refreshments of sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, cake, coffee and punch.

Decorations were by the Junior Grange, who had their party a week previous.

Lawrence Poultry Farm is "cock of the walk" in the Rochester Bowling League taking over top spot with a clean sweep of Hartley Saw Mill. Ed Lawrence led his chicks with a 380 triple with Big John Cebula posting a 386 for the Mill. Knotty Pine Cafe tied the team 3 string total with 1924 pins, paced by Rob Jefferson's 422 and took 3 points from Sturtevant & Hook. John Hayes' 360 was high for the losers. Herb Snell rolled a 353 to spark Harb's TV Shop to a 2 to 1 win over Hiller's Garage. Ed Figuerido's 394 saved one point for Hillers. Lloyd's Market took two points from Hartley's Garage with Don Gifford pinning a 385 triple for Lloyds and an ailing Wally Wojtkonski aiding the Garage with a 384.

be shown in the Tabor Academy Alumni Auditorium, Wednesday evening, December 29th, at 8 P.M.

Since 1904 when the Sippican Woman's Club was founded, scholarships have been a primary philanthropic activity of this group. Last year three substantial scholarships were given to deserving graduates from area schools. Additional recognition is given for excellence in art, scholarship and good citizenship, a campership is awarded annually and each year a substantial check is sent to the Veterans Administration for the relief of indigent veterans. The club also gives generously to local appeals and contributes to the philanthropic activities of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Money for these projects is raised from a November food sale, the Mid-Winter movie and a Spring Bridge and Fashion Show.

Tickets may be purchased at the Symphony Shop on Route 6, Mattapoisett or from the club treasurer, Mrs. Richard Steigerwald, Piney Point, Marion.

Everyone is invited to the movies on December 29th. Come, have a wonderful evening and help a good cause.

The movie is a sophisticated comedy suitable for the whole family.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

The Mattapoisett Woman's Club ushered in the Christmas season this past Thursday afternoon with a most delightful guest speaker, Mrs. Allen L. Dow, who spoke to the group about the "Plain People", of Pennsylvania, and their customs. Also, how they celebrate the Christmas season in their traditional fashion. Mrs. Dow left her audience with a fond wish to visit these people and see how they live, and to eat some of the food they are so famous for. Mrs. Dow was dressed in an Amish type costume.

The Mattapoisett Woman's Club had great pleasure to have as their guests for the afternoon members of local women's organizations. Mrs. Leonard A. Burnham, president, introduced the presidents of these organizations: Mrs. Clayton E. King, Altar Rosary Society; Mrs. Earle D. Wilson, Hilltop Friendship Society; Mrs. Kenneth M. Wiggin, Tinkhamtown Helping Hand Society; and Mrs. Giles H. Dunn, Women's Community Guild.

meeting. She thanked the club for the bouquet she received during her recent illness.

Mrs. Howard C. Logan, recording secretary; Mrs. Frederic E. Reynard, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Robert B. Smith, treasurer, submitted their reports.

Department chairmen reported as follows: American Home, Mrs. Albert Norlander, co-chairman, informed the club members the group will roll bandages at the January meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter M. Clark. Used sheets are asked to be donated for this project. The drama-literature group will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank A. Oxnard on January 11th. The play for the Show and Tell Day in March will be the subject of the meeting, Mrs. John R. Moynihan, chairman, reported.

Miss Lydia LeBaron Walker, chairman Fine Arts, announced that the January meeting will be held on the usual Wednesday. The subject matter will be the study plan for the group participation in Show and Tell Day.

Mrs. Frank A. Oxnard, community service chairman, reported the greens have been put in the window boxes at the post office and that a community Christmas tree has been placed in Shipyard Park. This is the first year a tree has been displayed in the park and it is hoped that in another year a further display will enhance this area. Scrapbooks for children's wards in the local hospitals were on display and members were asked to assemble more of these books.

Mrs. Linwood Lewis, program chairman, announced the speaker for the January meeting will be Mrs. Dorothy Gripp of Sandwich, Mass., whose topic will be "The Presidents' Ladies".

The tea table was a perfect holiday setting with a centerpiece which consisted of a tiny fountain surrounded by greens and sparkling red balls. Red candles graced this imposing setting. Pourers were Mrs. Victor Vogel and Mrs. Manuel F. Roza.

Hostess for the afternoon was Mrs. Benjamin Brintnall, assisted by Mrs. David Todd, Mrs. Gertrude Fietz, Mrs. Manuel F. Roza, Mrs. Robert E. Browne and Mrs. Frank Kouble.

M. M. Nyborg will become Chief Engineer of Sippican's Industrial Products Divison, and will be responsible for design of specialized welding and hermetic sealing equipment.

R. M. Steigerwald, Division Manager, stated that the Nyborg firm's present product line and services will be continued. Among the present Nyborg items are the Model 160 seamwelder for automatic hermetic sealing of bellows and thin metal assemblies, welding devices for hermetic sealing of crystal-type relay cans and metal-case flat-pack integrated circuit packages. The acquisition, Steigerwald said, represents an important expansion, into the industrial field, of Sippican's welding equipment line, which now includes the Sippican Varipulse, Constant Power and Insulated Wire Welders.

RT. 6, MARION MERRY CHRISTMAS

Years Ago

By C. M.

153 Years Ago -- 1812

After two months in Plymouth, England, Capt. Snow sailed the Ship Liberty down the western European coast to the Cape Verde Islands off Africa to pick up a cargo of salt for New York. The voyage down past Spain, the Madeira Islands, and the Canary Islands to the Isle of Mayo in the Cape Verdes was uneventful except for one day when the masthead lookout shouted, "Breakers ahead!" The ship was instantly put about, when it was discovered that the "breakers" were only the sun showing through the clouds.

But the log (the last of Capt. Snow's that we have,) of the voyage from the Isle of Mayo back to the States with the cargo of salt is something else again. Nothing had been said about the ship's leaking badly since the first week of the two month voyage from Sapello to Plymouth; neither had any mention been made of a leak on the voyage from Plymouth to Mayo. Yet the very first item of the log, a few days out of Mayo, reads:

July 1, 1812. These 24 hours gentle breeze, all hands employed in giting salt up out the loar hold between decks to make the Ship easier. Leak much the same 400 strokes per hour, pump every helf hour.

July 2. Gentle breeze....Leek much the same....smart breeze, all hands employed in giting salt up between decks, to keep the Ship from labouring.

July 3. Gentle breeze, at 4 P.M. found a Leek in the Run of the Ship. Cut away the sealing and stoped it. But the ship still makes 190 strokes every half hour.

July 4. Some squalls and jumbling sea. Saw a large school of porpoises, the ship leeks much the same.

July 6. Squally and jumbling sea. The ship labours very much...Leek has increased to 200 strokes per half hour.

July 7. Fresh breeze, bad sea. The ship's leek has increased to 1000 strokes per hour. She labours very much. At 10 A.M. got 2 casks of water in the long boat. Got meat and bread in, in Rediness in case we should be obliged to quit the Ship.

July 8. At 6 A.M. the ship made 1200 strokes per hour....gentle breeze and smooth sea. At 8 A.M. the Leek abated to 800 strokes per hour. All hands employed trimming salt and searching for a leek.

July 9. Gentle breeze. All hands searching for a Leek but found none, latter part squally and rugged sea. At 8 P.M. she made 9 1/2 inches of water in 5 minutes. Two men steddy at the pumps. At 9 P.M. we thought best to light the ship and so turned to giting salt over board.

July 10. Fresh breeze and squally and ruged sea. Employed giting salt overboard till 6 P.M.; found she did not gain....Making water so quited giting out salt. Latter part....high sea; the ship makes 7 1/2 inches water in 5 minutes. Two men steddy at the pumps.

July 11. Gentle breeze. Ship continues her leek. Two men steddy at the pumps and just keep her free. Find she does not take water so fast as she did before we lighted her and steers much better.

July 12. Light wind and high sea which makes the ship labour hard and Leek at the rate of 1025 strokes per hour. Pump steddy a going ....Trimmed some salt farward in Loar hold.

July 13. Squally....high jumbling sea that makes the ship labour hard and makes more water. Latter part sea more smooth.

July 14. Light breezes and smooth sea. The ship labours but little. But still keeps the pumps constantly going.

July 16. Fresh breeze....pumps constantly going.

July 17. Pumped up a small fish.

From July 18 to 21, Leek increases.

July 22. The ship's leek increases and we are most beat out to the pumps.

For the next five days, the same story .....leak increases.....Ship continued leaking very bad.

July 27. We are most Beat out pumping.

July 31. More breeze and more sea. The ship leeks very bad. At 3 A.M. saw a brig but could not speak her.

Aug. 1. Fresh breeze and squally. At 3 P.M. the Ship increased making water. Riged both pumps. At 4 P.M. freed her. Saw a schooner.

Aug. 3. Fresh gails and heavy squalls with a Very Bad sea. Obliged to work both pumps to keep the ship free and could only git the pumps to suck with a Role. At 7 A.M. got down T.G. yards and took a reef in each T. sail and spanker. At noon moderated and out reefs.

Aug. 4. More breeze....thick clouds ....smart showers. The ship makes so much water that we are almost beat out. At 11 got up M.T.G. yard.

Aug. 5. Light wind....at 1 P.M. spoke a sloop from Philadelphia under Spanish colours bound to Havannah who informed me their was English cruisers off Sandy Hook and told me Cape May bore NW by N 40 Leagues distant. At 10 A.M. a Cape Henlopen Pilot Boat boarded us and we took a pilot for Philadelphia.

Aug. 6. Fresh breeze. At 2 P.M. saw the land to the Southward of Cape Henlopen Baring W by S 15 miles distance and concluded to run the ship up to Philadelphia.

ORRHS VOTED MEMBERSHIP BY EXAMINATION BOARD opportunity to apply for membership in the Board. From the many schools that apply, a relatively small number are selected as representative of various kinds of secondary institutions, regions of the country, sizes of student enrollment, and numbers of students who take Board tests. The final selections are made at random from groupings set up in accordance with these criteria, and the schools selected are then nominated by the Committee on Membership.

The provisions for school membership call for three-year terms and rotation of membership to enable many schools to participate. Before 1959, secondary schools had been indirectly represented in College Board affairs through the member educational associations and by school personnel who were serving as elected Board officers or committee members.
